

What can leaders do to re-engage?

When 26 of May, from 17.30h Where PWC Business Center, Kateřinská 20, Prague 2

Why: Employees Engagement is a main indicator of key business outcomes like sales, productivity and profit. The main goal of this event is to highlight the importance of employees as "the most important asset" of any organization and give you an insight on how do the most successful employers do it.

Who: Four of the most influential leaders of today's business environment will be sharing with you their expertise on employee engagement and its impact on any organization. Leaders, HR professionals and line managers, all contribute to developing a healthy and supporting working environment, and have a great impact on employee engagement and productivity.

SPEAKERS

Jan Mühlfeit

*Chairman Europe
Microsoft*

Under his leadership, Eastern Europe became Microsoft's best performing region worldwide for four consecutive years. Over the past almost two decades, he has received numerous public awards as recognition of his industry and social contributions including the "Best Manager of Czech Republic for 1999" from the Czech Prime Minister, the "Czech Brain Award" and was named the Czech IT Personality of the Year three times.

Barbara Frei

*Country Manager
ABB*

Joined ABB Switzerland in 1998 and since then she has managed various departments such as Development, Service and Supply. Since 2008 she holds the position of Country Manager and succeeded to bring the company among the best 5 employers in Czech Republic. For the second consequent year Brabora Frei has been named by the Hospodarske Noviny in the top 25 business women in the Czech Republic.

Jana Riebová

*HR Director
UniCredit Bank*

Started working in HR back in 1993 for an international FMCG company. She works in the banking sector since 2002 when she joined HVB Bank as their HR Manager. Currently she is the HR Director for UniCredit Bank Czech Republic and also Board member of the Czech Society for HR development. Due to her excellent work she has been nominated among the finalists for the best practices prize by HRM

Branislav Hunčík

*Director HR services
PWC*

Is Director in PwC and he is responsible for HR consulting business in Czech Republic and Slovakia. Branislav has over 10 years HR/reward experience. He is accredited by PwC Saratoga for providing services in measuring return on investment into human capital. Currently, he also lectures at Charles University in Prague where he received postgradual degree (PhDr., PhD.).

MODERATOR

Claire Dickson
HR Solutions

Is an accredited Executive Coach, Career Transition Coach and Leadership Development mentor, with HR Solutions, based in Prague. Claire operated at HR &

Management Development Director Level for well over a decade, being familiar with the current issues facing managers and leaders.

Program

What: During this interactive seminar we will discuss following topics:

- What exactly is employee engagement?
- Identify the key drivers which influence engagement; new drivers during challenging times?
- What can leaders do to re-engage using real and practical examples on how to improve performance through engagement

You will also have the opportunity to address issues related to the topic to the panel of experts.

The event will be followed by a reception and networking session.

Registration details

How: Registration fee is 500 CZK (including refreshments)
Register by mail at pop@wnp.com or tel: +420 222 550 075
Deadline for registration is 19th of May 2010

Please note that seats are limited.

Media partner:

